

Japanese Pediatric Orthopaedic Association (JPOA)

Yamamuro-Ogihara Travelling Fellowship awards

Application deadline: April 15, 2024

FELLOWSHIP

This fellowship program is founded by Japanese Pediatric Orthopaedic Association (JPOA) to support young candidates who have interests in the Pediatric Orthopaedics from any developing countries. During several weeks stay in Japan, the candidates will visit several JPOA affiliation institutions and attend the JPOA annual meeting. They will be required to make a presentation at the meeting and to submit a short paper prior to the JPOA annual meeting. JPOA and founders hope that this fellowship will provide an opportunity to the candidates to broaden their experience, and prepare them for educational and leadership roles in the pediatric orthopaedic field. Yamamuro-Ogihara Fellowship requires a recommendation of a member of JPOA and the application will be done through the recommender.

ELIGIBILITY

An applicant must be an orthopaedic surgeon and under the age of 45 years old by the deadline date of April 15, 2024

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

JPOA will support the airfare between each country and Japan, and the local accommodation fee. But the applicants must pay the incidental costs such as the fee for the spouse.

The JPOA International Committee has approved the policy stating "We has set an upper limit to the price of an economy class air ticket, depending on the flight distance."

STAY IN JAPAN

Successful applicants should attend the 35th Annual Meeting of JPOA that will be held at Fukuoka, during December 13th-14th, 2024 and make a presentation (poster or oral) on their study in the meeting. JPOA will arrange one or more affiliation institutions or hospitals for the successful applicants to stay several weeks in Japan.

SELECTION

The selection will be made based on the applicant's CV and quality of the submitted abstract on their study. By the end of May 2024, the only successful applicants will be noticed about the selection result. The JPOA International Committee considers the application as the agreement of participation to this fellowship. If the selected person cancels this fellowship without any warrant less than 3 months before the annual meeting, the person and any other applicants from the same country will lose any chances to apply to this fellowship for 3 years.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The original completed application form
2. A full Curriculum Vitae with a portrait
3. Letters of recommendation from your mentors and from a member of JPOA
4. Abstract (within 300 words) of your study that will be presented at the annual meeting.

*Submission of a short paper prior to JPOA annual meeting will be compulsory when the candidate is accepted. The short paper should consist of approximately 600 words with 2-3 figures and will be published in the abstract book.

After completing the fellowship, we would like to ask the fellow to submit a travel memoir. If the fellow fails to submit, candidates from their registered institute and mentor will not be accepted for at least 3 years.

A set of documents must be submitted to Keita Okada MD, Chairman of JPOA International Committee, no later than April 15, 2024 through a member of JPOA. Incomplete applications or those received after the deadline will not be considered for the selection.
